

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Community research

Security
Research

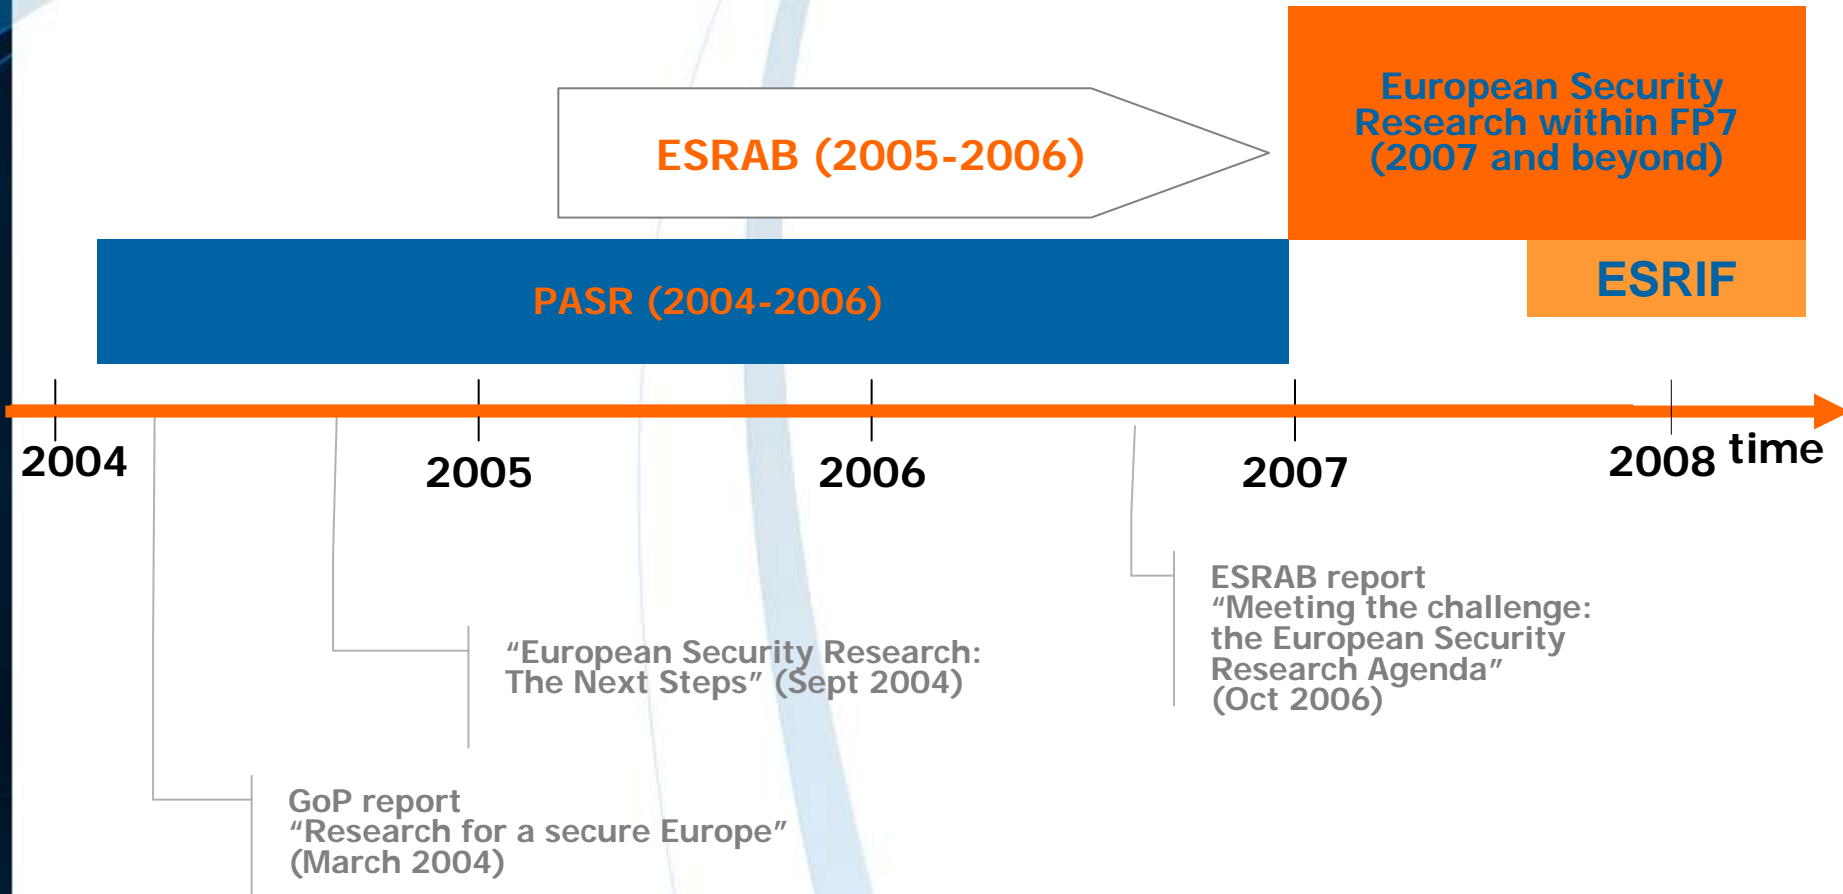

Privacy and Security in FP7

Christiane BERNARD

Seventh
Framework
Programme
2007-2013

A set of coherent initiatives

PASR Preparatory Action for Security Research 2004 - 2006

- Outside FP6
- An overall budget of € 45M
- 3 calls: 15 M€ budget each and ~15x over-subscribed

<http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/security> ;
<http://cordis.europa.eu/security>

Results	2004	2005	2006
Projects	7 (123)	8 (120)	8 (121)
Supporting activities	5 (50)	4 (36)	7 (44)
Total	12 (173)	12 (156)	15 (165)

FP7 2007 – 2013

SP Cooperation Theme Security

1.400M€

- Security and Society is one of the activities of FP7 Security theme and more particularly Ethics and Justice
- Two topics:
 - ➔ Respect of civil rights and more particularly privacy and security
 - ➔ Ethical implications of the continuum of internal and external security
- Ethics and privacy should be addressed in each proposal

ESRIF : European Security Research and Innovation Forum

Strategy group, set up by its stakeholders together.

- demand side ● supply side ● civil society side
- 70 high level members nominated by ● EU Member States ● 9 Associated Countries ● European organisations (e.g. EC)
- Mid and long term Joint Security Research Agenda
- Link security research with security policy making
- Provide guidance to the Member States (national security programmes) and to European security research
- Public-private dialogue in the field of security research

ESRIF : European Security Research and Innovation Forum

- 1st meeting : 11 September 2007
- Chairman: Gijs de Vries (NL); Co-chairmen: Giancarlo Grasso (IT) and Jürgen Stock (DE)
- Expected report towards end of 2009
- 11 Working Groups covering for example:
 - ➔ Foresight and scenarios
 - ➔ Situation awareness
 - ➔ Human and societal dynamics of security

More information

- EU Security research websites:
 - <http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/security>
 - http://cordis.europa.eu/fp7/cooperation/security_en.html

- Helpdesk:
 - entr-security-research@ec.europa.eu